

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name, Family Name: Marko VOLJČ
Born: December 5, 1949 in Jesenice, Slovenia
Marital Status: one child
Business Address: K&H Bank Zrt.
1051 Budapest
Vigadó square 1.
Phone: +36-1-328-9188
Permanent address: Ljubljana, Slovenia, Cesta Dolomitskega odrega
86 E.

Education: B.Sc. and M.Sc. in Economics,
Faculty of Economics, University of Ljubljana and Belgrade

Languages: English (fluent), Spanish (fluent), German (good), French (fair), Slovenian
(mother tongue), Serbian (fluent)

Business Career:

- from 1976 to 1979: Head of the analytical dept. in the National Bank of Slovenia
- from 1979 to August 1992: the World Bank, Washington, D.C.:

Having completed the advanced professionals' educational program by the International Monetary Fund in 1978, he joined the World Bank's Young Professional Program in Washington in 1979. He was involved in the World Bank's industrial and financial projects in Latin America (1980-85), served as a senior economist in the Bank's Industrial Strategy & Policy Division (1986). In 1987, he became the World Bank's first head of its Mexico City Resident Mission where he served until 1990 when he was promoted to the post of Country Programs Central America and Panama Division, a position he held until August 1992.

- from September 1992 till January 2004: President and Chief Executive Officer, Nova Ljubljanska Banka (NLB), Slovenia
- from February 2004 till April 2006: General Manager Central Europe Directorate at KBC Bank and Insurance Holding Company N.V. (now KBC Group N.V.), Belgium.
- from May 2006: CEO, K&H Bank, Hungary.

During his business career, Mr. Voljč has acquired a comprehensive knowledge and practical experience in Slovenian, Central and Eastern European as well international finance and banking. He has written a number of articles and papers concerning financial and industrial issues, about export development and promotion, on restructuring and privatization of public enterprises, as well as about restructuring, turn-around management and privatization of banks in Central and Eastern European transition and post-transition economies.

Since 1996 Mr. Voljč serves as Honorary Consul of Mexico to Slovenia. In 1998 he became the Slovenian member of the Trilateral Commission. From September 2000 to September 2003, Mr. Voljč was Member of the Board of Directors of the Institute of International Finance in Washington, D.C.. Between April 2001 and January 2004, he held the position of the President of the Managers' Association of Slovenia. In his capacity as Director General Central Europe for KBC Group he sat on Supervisory boards of KBC's banking subsidiaries in Poland, Hungary, and Czech Republic. He was also Chairman of the Supervisory board of Gorenje, Slovenia until July 2006.

Marko Voljč

April 10